Jaycess Sponsor Teenage Road-E-O

Tests are now being given for qualification in the teen-age safe driving contest to be held on the parking lot of Haggar Pants Factory Saturday, May 3rd.

The Safe Driving Road-e-o is for any teen-age boy or girl who will not have reached 20 years of age by August 15, last day of the national finals in Washington, D. C., has a clean record of no moving traffic violations in the last six months, and has a driver's license or permit.

McKinney's winner will try for the regional championship in Sherman on May 10. Through regional and state eliminations he (or she) may reach the national contest and be eligible for scholarships totaling $4,500, and an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D. C., for the winner of each state Road-e-o.

It is the object of the Road-e-o to give the nation's young motorists an opportunity to prove and improve their driving and attitudes and to stimulate community activities in bigger and better high school driver education programs.

McKinney's Safe Driving Road-e-o is an example of growing community interest in safety and safe driving. Safe Driving Road-e-o would not be successful today without the interest and co-operation of teen-agers, parents, educators, traffic authorities and community leaders. Each year, state, national and regional organizational organizations and firms, vitally interested in traffic safety, contribute money, time, and effort to make every Safe Driving Road-e-o a success. Cooperating with Jaycees in the average community Road-e-o are law enforcement personnel, safety engineers, driver training instructors, insurance personnel and a wide variety of businessmen.

The Safe Driving Road-e-o is performed on three levels of activity: The Community Level; with a written test on driving knowledge an da performance test in four obstacle-type exercises, the State Level; with a written test of driving knowledge, a performance test in four obstacle-type exercises, and a road check for in-traffic performance, the National Level; with a written test of driving knowledge, a performance, a driving attitude scale, a psycho-physical examination, and a personal interview.

THE BEST way on earth to make McKinney the best town in Texas is for the people to co-operate one hundred percent with each other; trade with each other one hundred percent; and advertise McKinney one hundred percent. A town doen't stand still—it either goes forward or backward and McKinney has gone forward and is still progressing.

A newcomer said recently that one of McKinney's greatest assets is "Friendship." A friendly town is a happy town, and where you find happy people you usually find prosperity.

In years past McKinney has steadily grown under the leadership of civic-minded citizens who believed in good schools, good churches, modern stores, and all of the facilities of a modern community. It took men in all walks of life, working together to build them. As we continue to grow, we must continue to work, build and talk "McKinney." If we believe in our town, then we can help the other fellow believe in it too. If you don't believe in it, and not willing to be a part of your town, just remember, the best highways in the world lead out of McKinney—why not take one? If you can't be a "Town Booster," don't be a "Town Buster."

Aged Woman Says She's Tatum Heir

According to J. E. Abernathy, attorney for the C. T. Tatum estate, the original, 1945, will of C. T. Tatum had been probated in 1953, which left all of the estate except some special bequests, to Buckner Orphans' Home and Texas Scottish Rite Hospital.

Seventeen months later Mrs. Nettie Womble filed a will supposedly written in Tatum's handwriting ten days before his death.

In 1953 she made a claim to the estate for services which she had rendered Tatum during his lifetime. The Appellant Court said she could not offer the hand-written will for probate because of a release which she had signed. The heirs claim the holographic will revokes the 1945 will and that since Mrs. Womble is the only beneficiary under the holographic will, cannot claim it because of this release.

Therefore Mr. Tatum's property passes to his heirs-at-law. The matter is now pending in the probate court of Collin County, Texas.

The Tatum estate has been represented by J. E. Abernathy since its inception.

MADISON, Wis. — A penniless 83-year-old Madison woman is an odds-on favorite to collect the major share of a Texas mule and an oil fortune estimated at 10 million dollars.

Madison attorney John Riley said Monday he has received word from Dallas, Tex., of a Collin County Court decision making Mrs. Sallie Souther the principal beneficiary in the estate of an eccentric cousin, Charles Tatum, who died in 1952. Mrs. Souther lives with a son in Madison.

Riley said Tatum's wealth originally was estimated at $1,200,000 but that discovery of unknown investments and an oil strike on his land already have brought the estate to the 10-million-dollar mark and may send it even higher.

Riley said the court verdict set aside two wills supposedly made out by Tatum, who in his life said "it was against my principles to make out any legal document." The verdict named Mrs. Souther as the closest relative.

He said the Texan acquired a sizeable fortune from his mule-trading father and apparently parlayed it into the multi-million-dollar brackets by a combination of personal thrift and wise investment.

Riley said Tatum lived for many years in a barn, and when he bought a home of his own had only kerosene lamps until a few years before his death when his housekeeper insisted on electricity.

United Church Women Plan May Fellowship Day

May Fellowship Day luncheon will be held Friday, May 2, at 12 o'clock at Wesley Memorial Methodist Church, 605 South Chestnut Street. Sponsored by the McKinney United Church Women, Mrs. Jack Weeks, president, the luncheon and program is under the chairmanship of Mrs. John A. Warden. Reservations are to make for the luncheon. The plates are $1 each.

"A Place to Live" is the theme for this year's Fellowship Day. It has been said that at the peak of America's wealth and power, one-third of the nation is no longer ill fed and ill clothed, but it is still appalingly housed. Church women are called to make a study of housing as it is related to people. It is very difficult to maintain a true home life without adequate housing as it exerts such an influence on how people live.

People everywhere who are concerned with how all Americans shall live, work and play, as cities and towns burst their seams from our vast population growth, are getting together to search out answers to this most critical of all domestic problems.

"From 150,700,000 persons in 1950, the population has expanded today to more than 165,000,000 persons. Current estimates of the Bureau of the Census point towards a further expansion of almost 65 million by 1975 to a total of 229 million persons, or a population growth of 78 million plus—a 50 per cent increase—within a single quarter-century.

"More births, fewer deaths, more problems. Where are these people living, where will they live? In the cities and expanding metropolitan areas, which are totally unprepared to accept them, is the answer. The farming population is on a steady decline. It is currently 22½ million and expected to drop to 15 million by 1975. It is estimated that 95 per cent of the increase in populatio will be located in metropolitan areas and other urbanized areas between 1957 and 1975."

Frisco School Is Burglarized Thursday Night

The Frisco school was burglarized Thursday night, some $200 stolen from the safe and two drink machines. Desputies Jim Standerfer and Robert Ramsey, who were in Frisco Friday morning investigating the burglary, report the building had been entered through a rear window which was forced open with an iron bar.

The safe had been moved from the office into the hall and the door peeled off. The coin boxes of both drink machines had also been broken open, according to officers.

SIXTH ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW HELD TUESDAY

"Around the World in a Daisy Haze" was the theme of the sixth annual flower show presented here Tuesday by the Wilia Largent Garden Club. The scene of the beautiful show was the Community Center which had been transformed into a vertitable flower garden —or rather, an "outdoor living room."

The ingenuity and skill of Willa Largent Club members was cleverly repeated in their sixth annual show, deemed by many viewers as "their best."

The spacious entrance hall caught one's breath upon entering, where the tables, in their arrangements, for various occasions, or the improvised patios, were a delight to milady's heart.

The international flavor was revealed from the very start, as a characteristic of each country was depicted by a bit of drapery, a piece of pottery, or maybe a picture, to further emphasize the floral arangement.

Much on the "old country" was brought to life in the spacious enclosed patio of the Center, where antiques formed an occasional background for a lovely bouquet. The newer furnishings from Johnson Furniture Company and Howell's Appliance and Furniture, were perfect settings for other arrangements.

The individual exhibits, vieing for the ribbons, added distinction, beauty and fragrance to the show, where techniques of arranging, grouping and quality were judged.

In the horticulture division the Junior Gardeners drew their share of comment for originality shown in their numerous exhibits.

Those blossoms grown "in our own backyards" would compare in quality with flowers grown professionally. Everything from fruits and vegetables, branches, shrubs and fresh flowers were used to make this year's flower show a success.

Winners in the various divisions will be announced in the Daily Courier-Gazette at a later date.

This is the last month for rendering taxes without penalty and losing homesteads, and Mrs. Nelson urges property owners to get their renditions in as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Yandell of Emory spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith. They visited Rev. Vaughton and family in Garland before returning home.

Honors Paid To VA Hospital Workers

Dr. W. H. Buckholts, manager of the local Veterans Administration Hospital, at the regular staff meeting April 15, presented Dr. H. Franklin Coffey of the Surgical Service and Mrs. Laura F. Reeder and James M. Lang of the Nursing Service at the hospital, a cash award and a Certificate of Appreciation in recognition of a contribution to the improvement of operations resulting from an adopted suggestion.

Dr. Coffey's idea was a mechanical device to be used by a patient to assist him in self-care. Mr. Lang's suggestion was an attachment to a wheelchair frame to hold a drainage receptacle. Mrs. Reeder's contribution was a mechanical device for connecting wheelchairs.

These contributions make possible the rendering of greater service in the most efficient manner possible, thereby adding to the comfort and well-being of the patients and the standard of service given by the hospital.

Dr. Coffey attended Baylor University in Waco and was graduated from the Medical School of George Washington University at Washington, D.C. He completed one year Internship and two years of Residency training in Orthopedic Surgery at the VA Hospital of Houston in June, 1956. During World War II and prior to his studies at Baylor, Dr. Coffey served almost three years with the U.S. Navy in the Pacific Area.

Mr. Lang, who was born at Princeton, Texas, now resides in McKinney. He was a ward attendant at the Ashburn General Hospital prior to his two years of service in the U. S. Navy in the area of the Philippine Islands.

Mrs. Reeder, a resident of McKinney, was born at Plano. She is a graduate of St. Paul's School of Nursing of Dallas and of Texas Women's University at Denton. Denton. Mrs. Reeder has been cited twice previously by the Incentive Awards Committee for suggestions. Dr. Buckholts congratulated the employes and expressed the management's appreciation for their interest and initiative in developing their ideas for the benefit of the patients and the hospital. He stated it was such interest and attitudes which made it possible for the hospital to operate at the highest possible efficiency and to render such high standard of service to the veterans.

Dog Law To Be Enforced Here

Chief Jack Pike announces the City Police Department will take rigid steps to enforce the dog ordnance here until owners register their animals immediately. The dogs should be vaccinated once a year by a reputable veterinarian, and secure license each year on January 1. The Chief reports only 30 pair licenses have been registered thus far.

There are too many dogs running loose and Chief Pike warns they will be picked up unless the owners get their licenses.

This ordnance is being enforced as a protection to the people, and to avert an epidemic of rabies as the weather becomes warmer.

WHEAT REFERENDUM

June 20 has been set as the date on which wheat farmers, by referendum, will approve or disapprove marketing quotas for the 1959 crop of wheat.

Texas dairymen are reminded that silage is the cheapest and best substitute for pasture and that the time is at hand for preparing the seedbed and planting the silage crops. Extension Dairy Husbandmen A. M. Meekma and J. W. Davis point out that a ton of silage costing from $4 to $5 is equal in feeding value to about 500 pounds of 16 percent grain mix costing $15 to $18.

Two new Texas Agricultural Extension Service publications, B-884, Oats in Texas, and L-390, Cotton Root Rot, are now available from the offices of local county agents. They may also be obtained from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

VARIATION IN LAMB PRICES

Market prices of lambs follow a fairly definite seasonal pattern within a year. Knowledge of this pattern can help Texas farmers and ranchmen evaluate their production plans to see whether it would be profitable to take advantage of seasonally high prices and avoid seasonally low prices.

On the Fort Worth market, between 1950 and 1955, prices of good and choice slaughter lambs were highest in April and May and lowest in the fall and winter months. Using this information, producers who sold good and choice slaughter lambs in 1956 would have received an average of about $20.30 per hundred pounds in April, $22.56 per hundred pounds in May, and $20.54 in June. If they had sold in January, they would have received about $17.08 per hundred pounds. In December, they would have received about $17.23.

Thus, in 1956, the average spread between seasonal high and low prices for slaughter lambs was $5.48 per hundred pounds. On a 90-pound lam, this meant the difference between a sale value of $20.30 in May and $15.37 in January, or $4.93 per head.

Feeder lamb prices tended to be highest in February and March and lowest in the summer months. In 1956, average monthly prices of good and choice feeder lambs were highest in February ($17.00 per hundred pounds) and lowest in July $14.54 per hundred pounds), a spread of $2.46 per hundred pounds). Thus, a 60-pound feeder lamb was worth $10.20 in February and $8.72 in July, a difference of $1.48.

Timely marketing can be an important factor in determining profit or loss for the sheep producer.

NEW EXTENSION PUBLICATION ON OATS AVAILABLE

Oats are grown in Texas for grain, grazing, hay and silage or for various combinations of these uses. Too, they are valuable as a rotation crop in some sections of the state.

The estimated income per year to Texas farmers from oats from 1944 to 1955 was 35 million dollars. During this period the average yield per acre was 21.5 bushels. The average acreage harvested for grain each year during this period was 1,313,000 acres. It was also estimated that one million acres were seeded for forage purposes in 1956.

The only other grain crops grown on a larger acreage each year are corn, wheat and grain sorphum.

Approximately 95 per cent of the oats grown in Texas is fed to livestock or used for seed and the remainine five percent is used for industrial purposes.

The grazing of oats under careful management does not necessarily reduce the yield of grain. In fact, controlled grazing may be beneficial if oats become rank. Moderate grazing is recommended but close grazing may make oats more subpect to cold injury and reduce yield.

The more common varieties of oats grown in Texas are New Nortex, Mustang, Alamo and Bronco, a new oat variety recently released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. New Nortex or other red rustproof varieties are favored by Texas farmers for grain production. Mustang, which was released in 1948, has greater resistance to cold than New Nortex. Alamo is the most rust resistant variety adapted to Texas conditions.

More information on oats, including cultural practices, selection of seed, diseases, insects, harvesting, storage and marketing may be obtained by ordering B-884, "Oats In Texas," from local county agents or the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

COOKIE BASKETS GO A-MAYING.

May Day — all nature blooms again! It has been a day of rejoicing since the time Romans worshiped, their goddess of flowers. The adorning of May poles and hanging of baskets of flowers on doors of friends' home are age-old customs from pagan days, but children today, continue to enjoy the custom.

Simple cookies can fill the gayly decorated May baskets to be hung as surprises. The basket may be a small carton covered with colored paper, left-over wall paper or any fancy wrapping material.

Filling May baskets will be a double treat for youngsters who make those chocolate wafers—so simple and so much fun to make. No fussy baking is required of very young cooks.

HOMEMADE GAMES.

You and your family will be happier, healthier and more relaxed if you learn to play together in your own home or back yard.

This bulletin No. B-869, "Homemade Games, How to Make and Play" includes games and equipment that have proved interesting to children and adults in family and community recreation training schools. Merely being an observer of recreation usually results in boredom, tension and fatigue. People are learning that active participation in recreation brings pleasure, satisfaction and relaxition.

Making equipment for games serves two purposes. It offers an individual, family, or a community group to have the satisfaction of creating something; and it enables them to have games and play qeuipment which will add to their enjoyment for much less money.

The classification of homemade games in this bulletin may help in planning for the recreation and development needs of all age groups — from the very young through the later years. These games provide for quiet and active play, for individual and group participation and for indoor and outdoor activity.

Get a copy of the bulletin listed above at the home demonstration agent's office in the court house in McKinney.

Harris Funeral Home Advertising To Pay Tribute To Our Town

Beginning today the Daily Courier-Gazette and Weekly Democrat-Gazette advertising columns will carry a series of articles for the Harris Funeral Home. These are not the usual type "ads" of a place of business, but are tributes to our town.

Ramsey Harris of the firm, interested in the civic progress of McKinney, is active in all community affairs and an ardent booster for McKinney.

Believing that every business owes something to the community which makes it possible for that business to succeed, Mr. Harris is expressing his appreciation for all people, or organizations, who make McKinney "the finest place in the world to live."

To promote the potentialities of our city is first to believe them ourselves. Harris urges everyone to take time to thank our fellowman for the fine and useful service he is rendering the community in his particular vocation and not just take things for granted like so many of us have done in the past.

Ramsey Harris foresees McKinney's progress strong enough to tell the world about it through this series of non-solicitous advertising, confining the space to "A Salute to Our Town."

Chamber of Commerce . . .

CORNER

By PAT SIMPSON, Manager

McKinney and Collin County will be called upon to make some far-reaching decisions before the close of the year. In addition to electing new public officials, we will perhaps have to make some decision about future highway building. In making these decisions, we should weigh all information offered and attempt to predict what benefits would come from the various courses of action offered.

A fact we know of the American tarveling public is that they like to get from one place to another via the shortest route and in the shortest possible time without being stopped or slowed down. Anyone can prove this by taking a leisurely sight seeing drive on any highway on any Sunday afternoon — there just isn't room for you to appreciate the country side at 35 or 40 miles per hour.

In the beginning, roads were built to connect one town with another, thereby benefiting the commerce of both towns. These towns at first paid all the cost of connecting roads and still carry a heavy load of the cost.

We know the present day trend of State and National planners is to build a system of super non-stop highways connecting the big cities and by-passing the smaller ones.

In considering our problems of highways, we know if we let the traffic roll through McKinney at 60 miles per hour, the lives and property of people will be endangered. If we slow it down to 30 miles per hour, most of the travelers are made unhappy and in turn refuse to speak a good word for our community.

We do have a good highway through McKinney on which a debt for right-of-way is still owed. This route is adequate for many years to come and will bring added business to our town. If the route is changed, many businesses will be forced to close and property will decrease in value. People along this route will pay directly and we should not criticize them for fighting to keep it.

If we keep this route for some time by delaying action of locating another the town may grow and in the next few years force the route farther from the business district. We stand to lose in the future if this happens.

What courses of action are open to us? We can delay action of locating a route and keep the present route as long as possible; We can encourage mapping a new route as soon as is practicable; We can make the present route a non-stop permanent route. Any one of these 3 courses are within the realm of possibility, instead of a community scrap we should weigh the benefits of each course of action and set our sights accordingly.

Greenville Trims M'Kinney By Score Of 3 To 1

By NORMAN SCOTT

Right-hander L. Bailey limited the McKinney Lions to three hits and a 3-1 victory for the Greenville Lions in a district baseball game Tuesday afternoon.

RETIRES 13 IN ROW.

Bailey, a tall, hard-throwing youngster, retired the last 13 batters in a row, and the only batter to reach base in the final four innings was shortstop Don Jenkins who was erased in a double play. Bailey faced only 24 men in his brilliant pitching performance which overshadowed a fine hurling job by McKinney's freshman, Tommy Lane, who gave up eight hits and only one earned run.

First baseman Don Wharton solved the slants of Bailey for two doubles and flied deep to right in his other appearance at the plate. Left fielder Robert Joplin picked up the locals' other hit, an infield topper in front of the plate that he beat out, and led to their run in the third. Joplin was sacrificed to second by Lane, and after second baseman Vic Petricka grounded out to first, Wharton lined a double to left to drive in Joplin.

Greenville tallied twice in the top of the fourth on three base hits, a walk, and an error. They added an insurance run in the seventh, unearned, and Bailey bore down on the last three Lion hitters in the bottom of the inning.

HOLT PACES GREENVILLE.

Third baseman Holt, with 2 for 3, both singles, paced the Greenville hitters for the day while center fielder Stratton and shortstop Garcia had 2 for 4. First baseman Rackley collected a double for his club's only extra base hit.

PLAYED AT FRICSO.

The tilt, scheduled for the VA Park in McKinney, was moved to Frisco by Coach Rusty Talbot early Tuesday morning when it was found that the local diamond was too wet for play.

Boys Leagues Set Deadline To Register

Saturday, April 26, has been set as the absolute deadline for registering for play in the McKinney Boys Baseball Leagues for this summer and all boys, 8 through 15 years of age, who want to play on one of the teams must sign up by that date.

Directors of the leagues have found it necessary to set a deadline this year in order to facilitate the organization of teams in the three leagues, secure competent managers and order uniforms and other equipment.

Boys who have not as yet registered may do so at the Chamber of Commerce office on West Virginia Street. A registration form will be found elsewhere in today's Daily Courier-Gazette or may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce.

Officials of the leagues want every boy in McKinney who so desires to participate in their summer baseball program. Every effort has been made to publicize sign-up dates and directors feel boys have had ample opportunity to register For this reason the April 26 deadline has been set.

A total of 122 Pee Wee League age boys registered at the Community Recreation Center last Saturday afternoon but only 35 Youth League-age boys were signed up. At least twice that number will be needed if a four-team league is to be organized.

Up to Monday of this week a total of 338 boys had signed up for the three leagues — Midget, Pee Wee and Youth. There have been 171 Midgets, 122 Pee Wees and 35 Youth Leagues register.

League directors will meet Tuesday night, April 29, at 7:30 at the Chamber of Commerce to complete organization of the leagues.

M'Kinney Lions Down G'Ville By Score 2-0

By NORMAN SCOTT

Tommy Carnes hurled a 4-hit shutout as the McKinney Lions downed the Gainesville, 2-0, Friday afternoon at Gainesville.

PITCHERS DUEL.

Carnes outdueled Grady Hickman with both hurlers receiving good support afield. Carnes allowed a double and three singles, struck out two and walked none, while Hickman gave up six hits, a double and five singles, whiffed seven and walked two. The McKinney freshman, who beat Mt. Pleasant, 2-1, last week with a 7-hitter, was tough on the Leopards all the way, and over the final five innings, only three Leopards were able to get on base, one of which was out trying to stretch a single into a two-bagger, and another caught stealing after singling. The third batter reached base on an infield error. Carnes faced only twenty four batters in his brilliant performance.

The Leopards had Carnes in trouble only once during the afternoon, in the bottom of the second, when after one out, right-fielder Jerry Harp singled, and moved to third on a double by firstbaseman Charles Boaz after a strikeout by catcher Carrol Kincy. Holmes tossed out Hickman for the third out to get Carnes out of the hole and from there, the youngster handled the Leopards in good style the rest of the way.

HOLMES LEADS LIONS.

GAME TRANSFERRED.

The game, transferred to Gainesville, due to the wet field at VA Park, was the third encounter in a row to be changed to the opposition's playing site because of wet grounds here.

McKinney Lions Blank S. S. By Score Of 11-0

By NORMAN SCOTT

Lane was in complete control of the situation after the Lions scored six times in the opening inning. The game was halted after five innings due to the ten-run lead rule.

FIRST INNING.

McKinney collected three hits and took advantage of four Wildcat errors in the first to sew up the contest. Doubles by Don Wharton and Richard Simmons highlighted the inning with Simmons two-bagger against the right field fence sending two runners across.

OTHER SCORES

After being held scoreless in the second and third, the Lions tallied twice in the fourth and three more in the fifth. In the fourth, Jerry Hall walked, Don Jenkins popped to second, and Simmons connected for his second double of the day, a line drive down the right field line, to send Hall to third before Robert Joplin singled counting Hall. Jerry Miller then singled Simmons across. Hall's two-baser scoring the singling Don Holmes and Wharton, who had reached first via a walk, featured the fifth inning scoring.

SIMMONS TOP HITTER.

Simmons, with his two doubles in three official trips, led the batters for the day. Simmons, a left-handed swinger, had been hitting the ball hard in recent games but into the fielders hands, and finally in yesterday's affair, the percentages turned in the youngster's favor.

THIRD WIN IN DISTRICT.

The win was the Lions' third against two losses in district action, and their 10th in 13 starts the season.

PLAY PARIS FRIDAY.

The Paris Wildcats, the district leader, is scheduled to come to McKinney Friday afternoon in an important game. The tilt will be plated at the VA Park if there is no additional rain before Friday. Wet grounds have caused postponement of three games thus far in McKinney and the locals haven't played a game before the home folks. Tommy Carnes, who shut out Gainesville, 2-0, last Friday, will likely start against Paris.

Highlight of the program was a talk and demonstration on corsage making by Mrs. T. T. Blagg.

"Making corsages is a lot of fun," Mrs. Blagg said, "And it's really a simple matter. A few flowers, a few ideas, and some simple supplies and a knack that is partly know-how and partly a little practice, are all you need to make original, charming and inexpensive corsages for yourself or for a friend to whom you wish to send some thoughtful personal remembrance.

"Choose any flower that ordinarly keeps well in water, and let it stand in deep cold water several hours before working. The supplies you need for a really good job are florist wire in three or four different gauges (Nos 22, 24 and 27 are the ones most frequently used,) a roll of floral tape, and, if you like, chenille wires and ribbon.

"As to method, flowers with a heavy calyx, such as roses and carnations, should have the stem cut off quite close to the flower head, the wire is pulled through the calyx, twisted once or twice below, then the wire an what is left of the stem are neatly wrapped with floral tape. Hold the tape in one hand and twirl the stem with the other. One of the main reasons for wiring and taping that you can bend the stems to assume a graceful line. Flowers with a wide head and very shallow calyx, such as chrysanthemums and daisies, need a different method of wiring. The straight wire is punched up from the bottom through the head of the flower and the end bent into a tiny hook. Then the wire is gently pulled back so that the hook will be invisible. Wire and tape all blossoms and buds, add foliage, allowing about three leaves to a medium-sized corsage, and then assemble the whole."

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Stelzer to club members and Mrs. Joe Mann, a guest.

First Christian Church Ladies Honor Seniors

'Spring was bustin' out all over' when the ladies of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church entertained the Senior Class of 1958.

A profusion of flowers, green branches and colorful Easter decorations were used to transform the Fellowship Room into a spring garden, where tulips bloomed on a simulated brick wall. The focal point of the garden was a beautiful patio where a white wicker tea cart was filled with potted red geraniums.

The decorating committee, Mrs. Dick Price, Mrs. Pat Clark, and Mrs. Ken Long, also carried out the class colors of red and white in the table decorations featuring candles and red basket place cards. Places were marked for one hundred and thirty Seniors, class sponsors and invited guests. Graduate members of the church were seated at special tables and introduced during the programs as follows:

Edward Dowell gave the Invocation and Don Wharton, class president, responded to the welcome by Dr. T. R. Leen. The speaker, Dr. Otto Neilson, member of the faculty of Texas Christian University, was introduced by Dr. Leen. He combined humor and philosophy in an entertaining address.

Musical Program Presented Lions Club Wednesday

Three talented young Negroes presented a musical program to the Lions Club Wednesday, at the First Christian Church. Rev. H. C. Hoy gave the invocation and President Leroy Richardson presided over the luncheon.

Lions Homer and Wylie Dugger were the program committee for the day, the latter presenting the young guests, Leonard and Nancy Jane Wattley and Ruby Ann Clayborne. Their program included vocal numbers, which were Spirituals, with Nancy Jane as accompanist. Nancy and Leonard played a duet, and also rendered piano solos, which had won them honors in the district music meet last week. They are pupils of Miss Tennie Strickland, and show much talent as pianists as well as singers.

Other guests for the day were William Underwood, student at Durant, Okla., guest of Lion Wade Underwood; Lowell Lindgren of Denton, guest of Lion Lewis Baldwin; T. E. Nolan of Garland, guest of Lion Raul Saba; Scott Johnson, guest of Lion Rusty Talbot; Don Weaver Davis, guest of Capt. Roy Hall; Clyde Thornton Jr., guest of Lion J. M. Wisenant.

Next week the club will join the Rotarians and Kiwanians in a testimonial luncheon honoring persons responsible for the flood control and water conservation program which led to the building of Lavon Reservoir. That meeting will be held at the First Methodist Church, April 25 at 12 o'clock (noon).

Charles Murdock Cooper of Galveston attended a Rehabilitation conference at Austin last week which was in connection with the work carried on at the University of Texas Medical Branch Hospitals in Galveston where he is assistant to the director, Arthur M. Hennings.

The University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston is developing a disaster and fire protection plant and has instituted courses of instruction for nursing service, dietary and housekeeping personnel on the use and effectiveness of firefighting equipment.

The course was developed by Ralph Pierce, superintendent of buildings and grounds of the physical plant, and Barbara A. Kent of the nursing service under the direction of Charles M. Cooper Jr., of the hospital administration department.

During the early days of penicillin, a small vial cost an astronomical sum. Today, the price has been reduced to the point that it now amounts to less than 1/90 of the price when first released . . . an excellent example of medical science's devoted effort to bring lifesaving drugs within the reach of everyone.

Mrs. Jack Weeks Reviews Book For Owl Club

Twenty-one members of the Owl Club met for the April 11 meeting in the beautiful, hospitable home of Mrs. George Jones with Mrs. F. E. Wilcox as cohostess. A profusion of colorful Spring flowers adorned this lovely home and nodded a welcome to each member present.

Mrs. Lyman Davis, president, presided at the short business meeting and gave a warm welcome to two new members—Mrs. Sterling Bailey and Mrs. O. B. Carol.

The program was most ably presented by Mrs. Jack Weeks who reviewed Joseph Gallombs's book "Albert Sweitzer: Genius in the Jungle." She held the close attention of all present with her interesting description of the early life of Albert Sweitzer and his lovely wife. Their unusual experiences and hardships during the many years they spent as medical missionaries and founders of the hospital at Lamberene French West Africa.

Mrs. Weeks is always an interesting speaker, but the review of this book revcaled much study and knowledge.

NEWS FROM THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS —of— THE COLLIN CO. SOIL CONSERVATION DIST.

Policies regarding the management of floodwater retarding structures were set by the Collin Soil Conservation District supervisors in their recent regular meeting at McKinney. "Although this policy is not new, the board thought that a clear statement of policy was needed for the protection and care of these public works of improvement belonging to the District," commented John Wells, chairman of the board.

The policy is as follows: To permit the landowners involved in each site to have full control over the use of the water for recreational purposes when used in compliance with Texas State game laws.

To permit the landowners involved in the site the right to use the waters for domestic, livestock, or family size garden (non-commercial) irrigation purposes.

To permit the sale of water or donation of water for such purposes as sprinkling of roads, drilling wells and commercial uses other than irrigation, provided land owners of the detention reservoir area are in accord.

To permit the use of or sale of water for purposes of commercial irrigation, provided that the structure will not be damaged as a result of this use. Texas State laws are complied with, and the landowners of the detention reservoir area are in accord.

To permit regulated grazing of the grass cover on the dam and spillway, provided that a 4 to 6-inch growth of grass is maintained at all times. All grazing should be excluded when damage may be caused due to wet conditions. Fences placed around the structure by the Soil Conservation at Service at the time of construction are to remain intact so that grazing can be properly controlled.

If further information is needed, Wells urged that district supervisors or Soil Conservation Service technicians be contacted. Other supervisors are C. E. Cantrell, Princeton; J. O. Sterling, Van Alstyne; B. C. Wood, Wylie; and J.. E Jean, Farmersville.

Many new easements for structures were signed by the board. These cleared the three sites in the Upper East Fork Laterals in the southeast corner of the Collin district, just north of Rockwall. Construction recently started on Sites 3A and 3B, west of McKinney, and 18 and 19 of the Sister Grove Watershed, northeast of Van Alstyne.

Twelve conservation plans were signed into now agreements on 1,567 acres. Eight of these were in the McKinney area and four were in the Farmersville area.
